October 2019

Volunteer of Distinction

Angie Fairfield is a dedicated CCPS volunteer. She became a part of the Cartwright Family in September 2013 when her daughter started Grade 1. She joined the SCC and went on to become secretary and chair. She oversees the CCPS events working on everything from our Craft Sales, to selling Poinsettias, Cookies, Veggies and Apples. She along with the SCC run a Community Night, the Annual Welcome Back BBQ, a delicious Take-Out Chicken Dinner and the ever-popular School Fun Fair. As SCC chair, she also leads key initiatives, such as updates to the school gym, library, and maintaining the playground equipment. Angie notes it has been a busy but enjoyable experience to be part of such a wonderful group of parents & staff volunteers. We are proud to have her as Cartwright Central PS's volunteer of distinction 2019!

ATTENDANCE MATTERS!

Did you know...

Attendance is essential to school success, but too often students, parents and schools do not realize how quickly absences - excused and unexcused - can add up.

Chronic absence - missing only 10 percent of the school year, or just 2-3 days every month - can translate into third-graders unable to master reading, sixth-graders doing poorly in courses and ninth-graders dropping out of high school.
